

Full & Partial In-State Scholarships Available

2003 Young Scholars Program

Learning Environments for the 21st Century: Students, Learning, and Technology

The College of Education will provide three weeks of dynamic and challenging educational technology activities through a variety of computer applications, field trips, guest speakers, and LOGO based computer learning environments – all while having fun!

July 13– August 1, 2003

Three Week Residential Program

Three Undergraduate Credits

Rising Juniors and Seniors in High School

Explore and expand your knowledge of essential 21st century skills

Learn About:

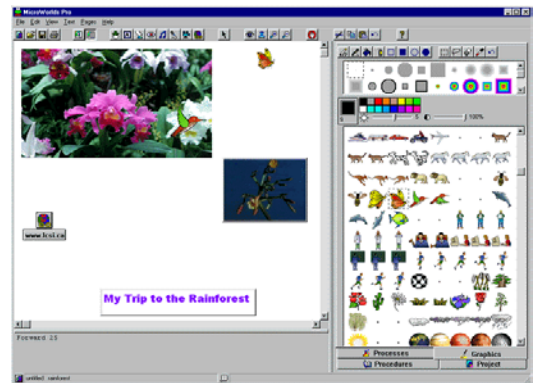

Logo

Robotics

Animation

Collaboration Tools

And other educational technology applications

Visit:

- National Institute of Standards and Technology
 - NASA Goddard Space Flight Center
- The Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory
 - UMD Neutral Buoyancy Research Facility
 - UMD Wind Tunnel
 - NSA National Cryptologic Museum
 - College Park Aviation Museum
 - Local IT Companies

For More Information:

<http://www.summer.umd.edu/>

<http://www.edtechoutreach.umd.edu/>

Davina Pruitt-Mentle

301-405-8202

dp151@umail.umd.edu

& Rene LaVigne

Full & Partial In-State Scholarships Available